

Isle of Man
Government

Reilhtys Ellan Vannin

Chief Secretary's Office

---

Public Notice

Gaelic Broadcasting Committee Applications for Appointment

The Council of Ministers is seeking applications for appointment to the Gaelic Broadcasting Committee. The Committee is an independent body established to promote and advise the Communications Commission and the Treasury on the making and broadcasting of programmes in Manx Gaelic. Members may also become involved in the recording of programmes, translations of news items into Manx and other activities organised by the Committee.

No formal qualifications are required to perform this role, but applicants should:

- have practical experience in the use of Manx language in both verbal and written form;
- have experience and/or knowledge and interest in broadcasting;
- be able to demonstrate a keen interest in the promotion of the Manx language, history and culture;
- have an awareness and understanding of the needs and requirements of a younger audience

If you are interested in being considered for appointment, an information pack is available from Sian Christian, Policy & Research Officer, Chief Secretary's Office, Government Office, Bucks Road, Douglas, Isle of Man, IM1 3PG, telephone 01624 686266, or e-mail: sian.christian@cso.gov.im. Alternatively an information pack can be downloaded at www.gov.im/cso.

The closing date for receipt of applications is 5th March 2009.