

Manx Gaelic classes for adults

Courses starting in September and October

Ynsee Gaelg - Learn Manx

Classes in Douglas

For information on lunch-time classes contact Adrian Cain on 451098 / 838527

Adrian will be running a new class for beginners starting in October in Douglas. There are already a series of classes in Douglas between 12.00 and 2.00pm catering for a wide-range of abilities. We also hope to establish an intensive Saturday morning class after Christmas at the Museum. For further information and advice about all of these classes contact Adrian Cain on 451098 / 838527 or e-mail greinneyder@mhf.org.im

For information about GCSE Manx at the IOM college contact Brian Stowell on 623821

Classes in Ballabeg

Monday night advanced class and Thursday night beginners and post-beginners are held at Arbory Commissioners' Hall in Ballabeg. Contact Adrian Cain for further information on these

Classes in St Johns

There are a number of different classes for various levels of ability in St Johns. For information on all of these classes contact Joan Caine on 843436

Classes in the North

There are a number of different classes held in the North of the Island Contact Fiona McArdle at fmcardle@manx.net for information on post-beginners and Paul Salmon on 245343 for information about classes for beginners

A number of these classes use Saase-jeeragh, a methodology which uses best practice from elsewhere and applies it to the learning of Manx Gaelic.

Suitable for adults, classes focus on speaking the language and involve little writing

To find out where your nearest Saase-jeeragh class is then contact Adrian Cain on:
