

Manx Gaelic Classes in Doolish

Starting this August and September courses using saase-jeeragh

Ynsee Gaelg - Learn Manx

For more information, contact Adrian Cain on 838527/ 451098 or at greinneyder@mhf.org.im

SAASE-JEERAGH

Day time classes:

with Adrian Cain

Class for beginners every Friday from 12.00-1.00 at the Manx Museum.

Cost: Free

There is already a class at the Museum from 1.00 - 2.00 which might be suitable for those with a good grasp of the basics.

For more information contact Adrian Cain on 838527/451098 or at:
greinneyder@mhf.org.im

Evening class:

with Brian Stowell

Based at the IOM College. Contact Brian on 623821 or at:

bstowell@mcb.net

Saase-jeeragh is a methodology which uses best practice from elsewhere, in particular Wales, and applies it to the learning of Manx Gaelic.

Suitable for adults, classes focus on speaking the language and involve little writing.

Classes are fun, involve a great deal of student participation and are a great introduction to the spoken language.

Gaelg jiu, jea as mairagh